

Andy Chukwu

Occupation: Actor, Film Director, Script Writer, Producer, Media Consultant and a renowned farmer.

Biography: Born on May 14, 1969, in Obinagu, Ishiagu, Ebonyi State, Nigeria, Andy Chukwu is a renowned Nigerian actor, film director, and producer. He began his career as an actor, starring in films like "Karishika" (1996), "Witches" (1998), and "Issakaba" (2000). He transitioned to film directing in the late 1990s and early 2000s, directing critically acclaimed films like "Mr. Ibu" and "2 Rats".

Notable Works:

Acting Credits:

- "Karishika" (1996)
- "Witches" (1998)
- "Issakaba" (2000)
- "Broad Day Light" (2001)
- "Tears & Sorrow" (2002)

Directing Credits:

- "Mr. Ibu"
- "2 Rats"
- "Honest Deceiver" (2009)
- "Double Mama" (2013)
- Heroes (2022)

Awards and Recognition:

Invited by President Goodluck Jonathan to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the first Nigerian movie on home video

Philanthropy:

Collaborated with Ebonyi State and Lagos State governments on the "Street to Skills" program to provide skill development opportunities to underprivileged children and teenagers

Working on a film Not Without My Mother to raise awareness about Vesicovaginal Fistula (VVF) and the challenges faced by its victims

Currently working on a project to Promote, Celebrate and Preserve the Igbo Apprenticeship System as well as empower the underprivileged