

Brief Profile of Sir. Oliver Ntui.

Sir. Oliver Ntui is a distinguished agricultural professional, educator, farmer, and agropreneur with expertise in Agricultural Extension and Rural Development. Currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Environmental Extension at the University of Calabar, he is deeply committed to advancing sustainable agricultural practices.

Born in Oban Town, Akamkpa Local Government Area of Cross River State, Sir. Ntui is a dedicated development scholar and researcher. He has contributed numerous scholarly articles to reputable academic journals, both locally and internationally, and holds membership in various research organizations and professional bodies. His current research focuses on Climate Smart Agriculture, climate change resilience, adaptation, and mitigation strategies.

Sir. Ntui has served with distinction as the Dean of Vocational Education at the Cross River State College of Education, Akamkpa, for two consecutive terms. He also held the position of Senior Special Assistant on Agricultural Enterprise Development to the immediate past Governor of Cross River State.

At present, he is the Head of the Department of Tourism & Hospitality Management at the University of Education and Entrepreneurship, Akamkpa, Cross River State. In addition, Sir. Oliver Ntui is the State Chairman of the Rice Farmers Association of Nigeria (RIFAN), Cross River State Chapter, where he continues to champion agricultural development and farmer empowerment.