

Miss Christabel Eze

Miss Christabel Eze is a dynamic and results-driven Nigerian professional with a strong track record in leadership, brand development, research, public relations, and administrative coordination, Christabel won the first ever prestigious title of Miss Agriculture Nigeria (2020/2021).

She combines creativity with strategic thinking, excelling in managing multiple projects, building innovative solutions, and fostering impactful partnerships.

She is the Founder and National Coordinator of Crystal Impact Development Initiative, a non-profit organization committed to empowering conflict affected and disadvantaged women and youth through agriculture, peace building, entrepreneurship, and livelihood support.

She provides strategic leadership, spearheads community development initiatives, and drives advocacy programs aimed at creating sustainable social impact.